ONLUS ASSOCIATION "CERCHIAMO DENISE"

The Onlus Association "Cerchiamo Denise" is a non-profitmaking association.

The association set out to: look for Denise Pipitone, the child who went missing in Mazara del Vallo on September 1st 2004, to extend the scope of the investigation and sensitize public awareness through moments of aggregation and the direct participation of citizens to all the issues about the underage.

Moreover, the association sets out to:

- Extend the scope of the investigation about Denise Pipitone through the contacts among associations, institutions, organizations, firms, society, professionals and every suitable physical or juridical person, and through sharing these contacts with other missing or abused children's parents;
- Act as a place for aggregation in order to sensitize public awareness on the social issues involving missing children and in particular Denise Pipitone, and thus help spread the humanitarian ideal of the safeguard of abused children's rights.
- Promote a culture of lawfulness on the issues regarding the kidnapping and the abuse of underage people, through the involvement of administrative and legislative institutions and also through the proposal of bills or public referendums.
